

The Arshad Ayub Graduate Business School fondly known as AAGBS, offers a range of postgraduate programs by coursework and research. AAGBS strives on the doctrine that continuous learning opportunity should be accessible to all. The postgraduate programs at AAGBS are well-recognised and well-established and the programs offered include a spectrum of disciplines within the business and management arena.

The postgraduate programs offered by AAGBS are the Master of Business Administration (MBA), Master of Islamic Banking and Finance (MIBF), Doctor of Business Administration (DBA) and Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) in Business Management.

In recognition of the quality of the MBA courses and operations, AAGBS is accredited by the Malaysian Qualifications Agency (MQA) and The Alliance on Business Education and Scholarship for Education (ABEST 21). The school is also a member of AACSB (Association of Advance Collegiate Schools of Business) body. Currently, the MBA programs are recognized by the Chartered Institute of Management Accountant (CIMA), Financial Planning Association of Malaysia (FPAM), Islamic Banking and Finance Institute of Malaysia (IBFIM), and the International Centre for Education in Islamic Finance (INCIEF).

Today, AAGBS has excellent relationships with many of the top organizations in Malaysia and the postgraduate programs are highly regarded by the business community. The programs at AAGBS provide experiential learning situations and focus on narrowing the gap between theoretical knowledge and the practical world.

Students will also have the opportunity to expand and strengthen their professional and personal network with AAGBS strong alumni during and after completion of the postgraduate programs. In addition, students have the opportunity to participate in international exchange programs and obtain a dual master degree through the school's numerous international linkages with foreign universities.
